The Farmers' Friend.

We have taken another dive into the files of the British Colonist when Mr DeCosmos ran it, and find still more damaging evidence of that gentleman's unfriendliness to the farmers whose votes he now craves. Not alone did be vote against granting a paltry salone did be vote against granting a paltry salone to a narrow road through Happy Valley from Cock's to Metchosis; vote against an appropriation of $1200 for Victoria District School House and $5000 for the improvement of the Sanich road;—but when an item-for the repair of James Bay Bridge was under consideration he went out of his way to taunt the agriculturists with their powerty and to declare that they were about hen upon the city 11. Thee, as on every other occasion, Dr Helmeken defended the farmers from the assaults made upon them by the most persistent enemy they ever had in the Island Legislature and whose opposition in 1866 to the improvement of the Sannich road left it for years atterwards a quagmire! It was not until 1869, after the city had oast Mr DeCosmos out, that he suddenly developed into 'The Farmers' Friend' and sought their suffrages. We put these facts before the constituencies of Victoria and Esquimalt Districts. In Vigtoria District, where he tried to abolish the school, Mr DeCosmos is seeking election; and in Equimalt District has attempting to dictate to the farmers who they shall return to represent them in the uext Legislature. Hore are the extracts. Let the agriculturists read them and learn who was the Farmers' Enemy when they most needed a Friend: mers' Enemy when they most needed a

James Bay Bridge, new piling and repairs unexpended in 1865, $850.

Mr McClure was of opinion the amount should be expunged or very much reduced. Dr Ash asked for information.

Dr Heimcken did not know whether the expenditure of the sum asked for was requisite or not, but he thought the lives of the hon members ought to be preserved—there were two piles that must necessarily be replaced.

r McClure moved that the item be reduced to $250.

r McClure moved that the item be reduced to $250.

Mr DeCosmos said the town had to expend all its money in building up the country. He was opposed to the city paying all the expense of the country, the ratepayers benefitted should bear the expense.

Dr Helmeken said the time was when the country supported the town; the hen gentleman was raising an animosity between town and country. Mr DeCosmos said on examination he found the city contributed eight-ninths, and the electoral districts only one-ninth towards the general Government; what benefitted the ountry ultimately benefitted the 'city' but he was opposed to taxes beng leved ypon the city to pay for every improvement. This was a matter that should be dealt with by the municipality. Dr Helmeken denied that the city paid eight-ninths of the general revenue, and as to the municipality there was none in existence.

Mr DeJosmos maintained that there was. After some further debate the item was reduced to $250.

"The Sins of Society."

The New York Tribune in an article on the above subject, says :—"It is probable that American mothers have no very distinct idea American mothers have notivery distinct idea of the enormity of the crime, which they commit in the slaughter of unborn infants, and clinging to old fallacies about the period when life begins, do not understand that they are guity of murder whenever, at any stage of pregnancy, they rid themselves of the sacred burden which heaven has laid upon the sex. Can our preachers and men of science do nothing to ronse their conscience? Is there no voice to tell them of the awful guilt they are laying upon their souls, and the terrible consequences they are bringing upon the constraints?

Married women undoubtedly supply a large proportion of the unholy gains which swell the purposes of mrn like Ascher and women like Madame Restell. And how can women doubted that when a reseasable matron. women like Madame Restell. And how can we wonder that when a respectable matron thinks it no harm to resort to these foul dens, or to practice the arts which are taught in them, poor girls who have fallen into sin should attempt to cover their shame by imitating the example of their betters? We may redouble the penalties for seduction, but they will not reach the root of the disorder. We may break up the establishments in Clinton street and Second Avenue, send a Lookup and a Rosenzweig to jail, prosecute the Herald for printing their advertisements, and perhaps even convict some wretched girl of manslaughter after she has escaped from an operation by one of vict some wretched girl of manusunginer aire she has escaped from an operation by one of these pretended female physicians; but when we have done all this the crime will still flourish in the secrecy of home until we have touched the callous conscience of American women and roused them to a comprehension of the fearful work they are doing. GENTLEMEN,—As the majority of you were absent from the husting at E-sulmant on Thurtday last (the day of nonmanton of candidates for your scalinger) as d must, therefore, be unaquainted with the opinions which I tone expressed as to the legislative measures that I most pressingly wanted to increase the prosperity of the Province's Large and our own district in particular. I have thought it advisable to repeat them again briefly in this circular.

1st—I am in favor of maintaining free non sectarian chools, under proper regulation, by the Provincial Funds.

24 As to the Tariff, we know that by the 7th article of the Terms of Contederation it was agreed that the existing Costoms Tariff and knows butles should continue in force here until the fash way should be opened to tanada (that is to say nearly ten years longer) the Caradian Tariff. He had way should be opened to tanada (that is to say nearly ten years longer) the Caradian Tariff. Got Mungrave, at the request of our last longer to the Caradian Tariff. Got Mungrave, at the request of our last longer and the caradian tender to the Covernor General to have our registration of the Covernor General to have our registration of the Covernor General to have our registration of the Covernor General to have out of the Covernor General to have been unposed shortly before to meet the cost of the telegraph to carlboo. The randification proposed was to reduce the duty on wheat 10 I cents per 100 [585] on four 10.76 cents per harrel; and spirits to So cents per galon, as per Canadian Tariff. To this application we have the Financa Silois er, Sir Francis Hilmess, reply, skiting, in substance, that as to the last imposed duty on spirits of 50 cents he saw no objection to its repral, but is to the reduction of the $20 So cents, he is very division. It is words are—"Singlith the General Council the Daminon Farliand to consider them favorably," thus telling us facility of the Council the Daminon Farliand to consider them favorably, "thus telling us facility and the great many of the Mariament. The reason of this doubtful reply is not far to seek. The majority of the Parliament are Free Traders. In the early part of the past sees in Sir Francis introduced a measure modifying the then existing Domainon Tariff avowedly for the purpose of protection, by which very moderate duttes were to be imposed on foreign wheat, flow and other articles, but the As to the Tariff, we know that by the 7th artic Terms of Confederation it was agreed that the ex imposed on foreign wheat, now and the Ho se would tot entertain it—a great many of the Maristry's own supporters vo ing against them. I have no doubt, therefore, that even it our Legislature were to repeat the application it would be met with a reducal, for don't think the Miss on the Condectation Terms: it would not be the control of the control of the Condectation Terms: it was a newsonable in us to expect them to do row. We must, therefore, fail back to the choice originally given us, viz, either our own, or the Canadian Tarill off our own tariff I will only say that it was a necessity while we were a colony saddled with debt and desirous to maintain our credit; but now that we are a Fry vince and not only free drom debt, but almost certain of a considerable annual surjues, the choice ought not to be doubtful. By our own tariff we are burdened with a cast Law which benefits nobody. The duty on wheat has not raised its price, it being to-day from a 2 to 2/2 accept per pound cheaper here than it is a feet the tit. the day on which benefits nobody. The daty on whost has which benefits nobody. The daty on whost has not mised its price, it being to-day from a $2 to $5 a cent per pound cheaper bere than it is in Portland or San Frances, while it has had the svil effect; that it has killed all attempts to establish flour rulis and their incidental beaefits in cheapening bran, shorts, &c. The daty on flour raises its price to twice its actual amount—that is the dity—as we see in the fact that while we are at present paying $10 per barrel our neighbors cross the round are paying only $6.5 to $7, and our fellow subjects in the Dominion, at Montreal, by a quotiellow subjects in the Dominion, at Montreal, by a quotiellow subjects in the Dominion, at Montreal, by a quotiellow subjects in the Dominion, at Montreal, by a quotiellow subjects in the Bominion, at Montreal, by a quotiellow subjects in the Bominion, and signation; the Caradian, light taxation and signation; the Caradian, light taxation and signation; the Caradian Tariff is, therefore the commercial execution of the property implement that is required for agricultural map of every implement that is required for agricultural improvement as well as the price of the bread that we are to sat.

334-90-17 most pressing district want is improved roads Our present truth fine from Motchosia to Victoria was laid out when there was exacted a wheeled vehicle on the faisand, 11st ups and downs were then excessible; ow they are a great drawback and must be levelled or avoided, Our roadmaking in the future should have the lime staded search and the speedy construction of the fails and in fayor of the speedy construction of the fails.

A Deserved Punishment.

On Wednesday morning the following scurrilous and insulting letter, which could only have omanated from the mind of a cowordly ingrate or a conceiled, ignorant puppy of a low order of intellect, appeared in the Standard newspaper of this city:

A HAUNTED HOUSE ON MEARES STREET
On Wednesday the family of Mr J S Deas moved into a cottage on the right-hand side of Meares street, just beyond the Cemetery. About TI o'clock the family retired to rest and soon fell askep. In about an hour and abunit atterwards the free-boils rang and awakened the sleepers. A girl who slept in one of the rooms saw the room suddenly lighted no, and looking towards the window asw standing outside and looking towards the window asw standing outside and looking in a colored man She leaped out of bed and lung a bladfiet up at the window shutting out the figure. At about the same inoment Deas and his wife who had been awakened by the fire-bells, saw an arch of blue, green and yellow fire spanning their room. Every object was distinctly visible—oven the time o'flight [27 minutes to 1 o'clock] was seen and noted. At one end of this arch of fire stood the form of a celocked man, who died some years ago, mamed of this arci. of fire stood the form of a colored, man, who alled, some yoars ago, manged R H Johnson. He wared one hand over his head and with the other first pointed to the centre of the arch and then drew it slowly across his throat! The occupants of the room, tried to speak but their tongues clove to the roofs of their mouths.
They tried to set up, in bed, but found that power to do so had foresken them. At last they drew the bediebites over their heads to shut,out the apparition and lay until daylight, when all signs of the grim visitor had disappeared. They arose at six o'clock and commenced to move their furniture into another house, and last night the haunted house was left alone with the ghosts. Yesterday we learned that the families who had occupied the house previously were frequently disturbed learned that is a families who had occupied the house previously were frequently disturbed by footsteps, the opening and shutting of doors and the frequent presence of supernatural visitors, and had moved away. Esquimalt District.

Scoke, Oct 11th, 1871. EDITOR COLONIST .- We hear that Mr Pentis has resigned as a candidate in this District, and I think it would be advisable if Mr Caulier and Cogan would do the same. We don't want men in the House, for organization order to make up the number of representatives required, but we want men who can speak, men who can debate and ex-press their views. For instance, I have ut-tended some meetings and when those gen-tlemen came forward all they had to say was: -" Gentlemon-I am no speaker, I am no Gentlemon-I am no speaker, I am no politician, I am in your hande. If you elect me'l will do the bast I can for you! Now, Mr Editor, if you can tell us what those gentlemen know I would be obliged. Ob, I believe they call themselves farmers, which I believe they are, working the Hudson Bay farms at a certain rental. At this time we want men of experience with a little education—mon that Mr DeCosmos cannot put a halter on and lead over James Bay Bridge at whatever time be thicks fit. I am farmer myself and would like to see a good a farmer toyee f and would like to see a good farmer in, should be come forward; if none will do so, then I must take my pick from the Candidates already in the field.

The Woes of an English Gallant.

A breach of promise trial has been interesting the British public during the intermission in the Tichoorne proceedings, the plaintiff being a vertean maiden named Hubbert, and the defendant an elderly gentleman of Lincolnshire, named Copping. Mrs Copping died, and the fair Hubbert, who now brings a suit for breach of promise an a young man of thirty, came to the funeral and stayed a few days. When she went home the bereaved widdower said to her "don't be in a hurry to throw yourself away." Her conscious heart interpreted these words to mean "wait for your Copping." She did not have to wait long The next month he wrote to her a letter which ended "with fondest love and lots of kisses, dear Charlotte, from your ever loving Wright Copping." which, the learned consel judiciously observes, "was not bad for a first letter." (Langhter in the court.) He got on beautifully; in his next letter he consults her in relation to some feather beds he is purchasing, not "caring to please any one but her own dear self." Occurse there was "renewed langther," which was not cured when the consciontuous swain; as if realizing that there was something slighty The Woes of an English Gallaut. some loather beds he is purchasing, not "caring to please any one but her own dear self." Of course there was "renewed laughter," which was not cared when the consciontuous swain, as if realizing that there was something slightly suggestive in that phase of the feathers adds, "I mean right." And so proceeding through a wilderness of billet-donx, his passion makes nim a poet, and he talks of the strains and stings of his kisses like a cockney Angreon. At a later period, when the learned consul toils us his love was cooling," he perfiditionally re-inforces his letters with perfect anout. "Those nothing will ever change the love we had for one another. If I was agen you I would give you some good kisses. (Langaier.) I would le we 'n mark on your, dear cheek." (Laugater.) Only a few weeks later he writes," I am not cross with you, but, as I told you before, I can't get on with so much letter writing; either will, it flugts me. Only think of por, dear Mary, been gene just five months. (Lourl' langhter.") There is nothing so comical as perfity and hypoerisy of a middle aged many who can afford to pay it. The first reference to the dear departed, which should have gained him the sympathy of of all genile spirits, sealed his down with the hara-hearted jury. Nothing now reindrab out for scertain how much nucleting, he could endure. To the Requisitionists and Electors of Esquimall, Including Metchosia, Socke and Highland.

GENTINEN,—After considerable hesitation, erising from causes which I can easily and, I trust satisfactorily explain when the proper time arrives, I unreserved by place myself in your hands as a candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election.

It is satisfactory to k, ow that great unanmity provails in the various sections of the colony upon the extension and treiggraphic communication, as well as upon education and referencement of roads and bridges, upon mail and telegraphic communication, as well as upon education and referencement of the colony upon the extension and referencement of the colony upon the extension and referencement of the colony upon the content of the colony of the colo that power which one Act of Parliament can exercise over another.

In the training of the 'Qualification of Voters' Act.' In had no mere to do than I had with the 'Read Act,' the 'Real Estate Act,' and the 'Education Act,' which proved to be as defective as they were hosperative. But the principles and the technicalities which ought to constitute the spirit innus to rigidly adhered to by these who profess to have respect for law.

It is well-known that when I selected Frequimalt as a residence I considered it the key of the colony, and I think so still. I may not be able to bring the Graving book of the Raliway to my own door, but I may be instrumental in bringing one or both of them to some or yours without the add or cast of a freedger, which is the add or cast of a freedger, which is the add or cast of a freedger which we had to cast of the contribute which brought steamers from England, and although the success was not equal to expectation. I hope the day is not fer dignant when steamers of greater precensions than the Robert Dewo or WS Lindsay will enliven the wharvis of Equimal harvor.

The farmers are not claimorous—to their keno; by it for distant when steamors of greater pretensions than the Robert Lowe or WS Lindsay will enliven the sharves of Fequimalt harbor. The larmers are not demonous—to their keep, but spokes—for G-vernment add for their special benefit. The Tarlis which odly came into open atom a few years ago was the emanation of your most astnte statesmen. The reverse previously derived from feel Estate or a land tax, was to be provided by a tar-fit which included a duty on foreign grain. There can be no denying but that it has worked for the benefit of the farmers and industrious classres, and injured no one but those who can take care of themselves.

The difference between the Canadian Tariff and our own lies as between beef and bread. Allowing a pound of flour at the continuous classres and a pound of ober at twenty cents pur day for each man, a saving of the cent upon flour to lay it upon need makes no difference to the one member but a very great difference to the producer. Let those try to still greater the product of the first of the stilling scale. In less than the meantlemed to the producer. Let those try to stilling scale. In less than the meantlemed to they for opin by our own as long as we may.

The clearing and cultivation of the land gives employ—

The closering and cultivation of the land gives employment to the industrious clastes, and wherever your corn is produced thither must your powman and your cappr, your shovel and your capital go.

One ber sman and a narrow trail are sufficient for many hosts, by a trequires the handreratt to make a mill and industrious hands to keep it going.

And while I am aware that many other important and delatable questions with soon be brought forward. I can see no necosity for belsting party golors and will follow no uncertain sound. I have no confidence in these who anticipate the day when the the gross aclusions of Community will prevait. I am for building up and not for pulling down. I will neither work nor maneaver for spoil and therefore have no plunder to older. I will favor no monopoly, but et courage every indivitual and private cuterprise with a hearty and heat thy coperation of every interest for the general good, and on these principles at an prejared to stand or fall.

It called upon to serve you I will do it disinterestedly and faithfully with undergreed thanks for the requisition that is heloe mey.

Filliaw Fixerons:—In deference to the wish sof many influential gentlemen composing your body politic. Lofler my service as one of your representatives in the coming session of the local legislature.

I consider it would be superfloous to parade before an intelligent constituency a long array of glowing promises and, if elected, I would only claim the poet's privilege, that is, speak what you think.

My views are much in union with your own, when I say that I am in favor of the immediate adoption of the Cauadian Tariff, amendment of the Civil Lies Act to embrace only beads of departments, a liberal and nonrectarian School System maintained directly from the Provincial exchapter, large appropriations for roads and bridges, and other work of public utility throughout the Province.

bringly, and other work of points usinly unroughout in Province.

The question of a Graving Dock in Equimalt harbor is a necessity to our present and future wants and highly practicable, and I will urge its orams in the House at the proper moment. A tax on wild lands, and free grants to bona fide settlers I would support. An extension of the franchise to all British subjects and ballot voting, are reforms which I would support.

I would oil add, that the best interests of the Pro-vince, and espocially of the district which I hope to have the honor to represent, will always be to me objects of my cornest solicitude.

The measures that a member of the House of Commons may be called on to doal with being different from those of a member of the local legislature, being in their nature more national, it is doubtless expected that I, as a candidate, should advert to at least some of them that more directly concerns your interests.
